

Carl R. Tannenbaum - Chief Economist

Carl Tannenbaum is the Chief Economist for Northern Trust. Prior to joining Northern Trust, Carl led a team at the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago whose charter was to analyze financial risk, its implication for the broad economy and policy choices to address it. He served as the head of the entire Federal Reserve System's risk group in Washington for a year that ended in March, working closely with Federal Reserve System Governors and senior officials.

He received a bachelor's degree in finance and economics and a Masters of Business Administration degree from the University of Chicago. He is a past chairman of the Conference of Business Economists and also a past president of the National Association for Business Economics, the North American Asset/Liability Management Association and the Bank Administration Institute's Treasury Commission.

---

Asha Bangalore - Senior Vice President and Economist

Asha Bangalore is Senior Vice President and Economist at The Northern Trust Company, Chicago. Prior to joining the bank in 1994, she was Consultant to savings and loan institutions and commercial banks at Financial & Economic Strategies Corporation, Chicago. Ms. Bangalore was a faculty member of the Department of Economics, Trinity College, Connecticut, during 1990-1992. She was graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Bangalore University, India. She received Master of Arts and Ph.D degrees in Economics from the University of Connecticut. Ms. Bangalore is a member of the National Association of Business Economists and the American Economic Association.

---

Victoria Marklew - Senior Vice President and International Economist

Victoria Marklew is a Senior Vice President at The Northern Trust Company, Chicago. She joined the Bank in 1991, and now heads the Country Risk Management unit, assessing country lending and investment risk around the world. Dr. Marklew has a B.A. degree from the University of London, an M.Sc. from the London School of Economics, and a Ph.D. in Political Economy from the University of Pennsylvania. She is the author of Cash, Crisis, and Corporate Governance: The Role of National Financial Systems in Industrial Restructuring (University of Michigan Press, 1995). She and her husband, Michael, reside in Jenkintown, Pennsylvania.

---

James Pressler - Associate International Economist: Asia and Middle East

Jim Pressler is a Second Vice President at The Northern Trust Company, Chicago. Mr. Pressler joined the bank in 1993, and since 1995 has been an economist in the Country Risk Unit, assessing country lending and investment risk around the world. With a general focus toward developing economies, Mr. Pressler specializes in China and the roles of the dominant Asian countries, and has spoken extensively on the topic. He received a B.S. degree in Statistics and Operations Research from the University of Illinois at Chicago.

---

Ieisha Montgomery - Associate International Economist

Ieisha Montgomery is an Associate International Economist at The Northern Trust Company, Chicago. Ms. Montgomery worked in client servicing and project management with Northern Trust Global Investments prior to joining the Country Risk Unit. Ms. Montgomery holds a Bachelor's degree in International Relations and Political Science from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, as well as a Master's degree in International Politics from the University of Manchester, UK. She currently monitors the Asia-Pacific, non-EU/Eastern Europe, and Sub-Saharan Africa regions.